Clorofilla

Porcelain Stoneware Â· Floor and Wall

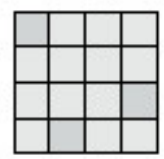

OVERVIEW

The collection embraces a key interior design trend for 2020: â€œBiophilic Design.â€• This trend emphasizes the connection between humans and nature, aiming to create environments that seamlessly bring the outdoors inside for maximum well-being. The project features a variety of indoor floor and wall tiles, each inspired by hand-crafted botanical patterns, allowing the beauty of nature to flourish within our homes.
